Hawai'i Cannabis Expo 2026 Returns to Honolulu

Three days of education, culture, and community at the Blaisdell Exhibition Hall

Honolulu, Hawai'i — The Hawai'i Cannabis Expo returns to the Neal S. Blaisdell Exhibition Hall from January 30 through February 1, 2026. The three day event brings together education, exhibitors, speakers, and community programming focused on cannabis in Hawai'i.

The expo features educational sessions, exhibitor booths, and cultural programming designed for patients, professionals, advocates, and the general public. Attendees will hear from speakers covering policy, healthcare, science, and industry topics while engaging with local and visiting exhibitors.

The Hawai'i Cannabis Expo is an educational and cultural event. No cannabis sales take place on site. All programming and exhibits comply with applicable local and state laws.
